

DR. WILEY IS FIGUREHEAD

Absolutely Stripped of His Power by Wilson for Benefit of Food Dopers

COMMITTEE HEARS STORY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Dr. Harvey Wiley, the chief chemist, testified before the house committee investigating the affairs of the department of agriculture today that he had surrendered all his authority for enforcing pure food laws to Dr. Dunlap, assistant chemist, and George P. McCabe, solicitor of the department.

Overruled in two-thirds of the cases he brought before the board composed of these two men, he declared it useless to appeal to Secretary Wilson. He has not even received an answer to the most important appeals made to Wilson.

Wilson declared he never received the Rusby letter used by the personnel board to prove that he knew of the Rusby contract. In using the letter, Wiley said the board left out the most important part, namely, that which stated that an arrangement would be made "without the approval of the department."

Wiley said McCabe held the decisive vote on the board of pure food inspection. When Wiley and Dunlap disagreed on questions of chemistry, McCabe would decide whether prosecution would be made. He is a chemist. In fully a hundred cases, Wiley said, he and Dr. Dunlap voted together and Dunlap changed his vote to agree with McCabe.

"Did you appeal to Secretary Wilson?" was asked.

"It was useless," said Wiley, "for the secretary invariably upheld the decisions of the board."

Wiley left the city one day at 4 o'clock to go to Boston. Between then and 4:30 the board held a meeting and overruled an order preventing manufacturers to use a sulphurous process without publishing the fact on their labels. He appealed but the secretary upheld the board.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY AND AIRSHIPS FOR ARMY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 17.—With the wireless division at San Antonio, Texas, disbanded, the war department is preparing to extend the experiments undertaken there to the regular army posts of the country. As the first step, the cavalry will be reorganized into larger units. The greatest difficulty encountered by cavalry officers, it is said, has been the lack of communication for practical operations.

It is proposed to establish a cavalry division, consisting of four regiments, at or in the vicinity of Fort Riley, Kansas. The initial move probably will be the sending of another regiment to Fort Riley, which will complete a cavalry brigade.

In the cavalry reorganization the use of wireless telegraph by the mounted branch will probably be developed. It is also likely that experiments will be made with aeroplanes working with cavalry.

TAFT TO SEE MINE BLOW UP OCTOBER 26

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—President Taft and 20,000 miners will watch an actual mine explosion at Pittsburg, October 26. They will be told the causes of explosions, will be shown the most scientific manner of avoiding them, and will see demonstrations in mine rescue work. The demonstrations will be given by the bureau of mines to school miners in the prevention of accidents and curing for contemned men.

The first day there will be an explosion of coal dust in the experiment gallery and tests of safety lamps in gas. In the afternoon there will be an actual mine explosion in the experimental shaft of the bureau at Bruceston, Pa.

Next morning in the Pittsburg baseball park, the president will see an explosion of coal dust in a temporary steel gallery. A rescue corps in the oxygen helmets will go through the methods of rescue.

NEW PRESIDENT IN ECUADOR GUAYACIL, Ecuador, Aug. 19.

Reliable information confirms the earlier reports of a clash between the political factions at Quito, the capital. President Eloy Alfaro has resigned and is now at the Chilean legation. The president of the senate, Carlos Freile, has assumed the duties of the executive and formed a provisional government with Gen. Franco as minister of war and Octavio Diaz in charge of the affairs of finance, the interior and the foreign office.

JUAREZ MAYOR NOW IN JAIL

Orozco Arrives in City Suddenly, Cleans Up Gambling and Makes Wholesale Arrests

CLEVER RUSE EXECUTED

JUAREZ, Mex., Aug. 17.—This city is under martial law and the mayor, Juan N. Medina, is under arrest, following the arrival yesterday of Gen. Pascual Orozco from Chihuahua. All gambling houses have been closed. Orozco, a general, orders from Governor Abraham Gonzalez to close the gambling houses, and, apparently, to arrest the mayor of the city who had permitted the running of a wide-open town. Orozco did his work in an orderly manner, and with such suddenness that no one escaped, not even one dollar, nor one gambler, nor the new mayor.

Arrests Made Speedily. Shortly after 9 o'clock insurrectionary soldiers of the Juarez garrison surrounded the six gambling houses of the city. Doors were guarded, and not only the employees of the places but the frequenters were held prisoners. The first place to be officially confiscated was "The Casino," a house located on Calle Comercio, the principal street of the city. This place was run by Jacobo Touche, "The Turk," a notorious promoter of games, and for many years sharer in the federal gambling concessions in the state of Chihuahua. Touche, who is reckoned to be fabulously wealthy, was requested to turn over his cash.

In charge of the proceedings was General Orozco himself, uniformed and quiet as ever. He was accompanied by Luis S. Elizondo, private secretary to Governor Gonzalez, Colonel Estrada, in charge of the Juarez garrison, and S. Vargas, state tax collector at Ciudad Juarez.

Gamblers Jailed. After the cash was counted in "The Casino," Touche and eleven other gamblers were walked off to jail. This jubilee in the municipal affairs of Ciudad Juarez follows a breach between Mayor Medina and Abraham Gonzalez. According to Senor Elizondo, the governor's personal representative, Medina was ordered two weeks ago to close all gambling houses, but the Keno games, which were operating under a regular concession, Medina, it is alleged, paid no attention to the order from the governor, who had appointed him as municipal chief of the city. Later telegraphic orders were sent to Medina, so the governor reports, ordering the mayor to close down the houses. The games remained open.

Orozco Arrives.

General Orozco and a staff of officers arrived from the state capital last night. It was given out that the general had come for the sole purpose of formally presenting the "blatant whistler" cannon to El Paso. So complete was the deception that no one anticipated the sudden stroke of last night. Every wheel in the gambling world of Juarez was operating as usual. Mayor Medina a few moments before the raid drove to his residence. Returning to the city he was arrested and detained under guard in his office in the municipal building. It is said that some formal charges will be made against him, such as a violation of the state law in permitting gambling without state or federal concession.

Shortly after the fall of Juarez, Governor Gonzalez, then chief of the second military zone, according to insurrectionary military plan, promised that all gambling which had no concession previous to the date of the revolution's beginning would not be permitted. The state government, he ruled that the keno and the race track had a former concession, which would allow these to run, but no others.

EDMOND ROSTAND IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

BIARRITZ, France, Aug. 17.—Edmond Rostand, poet and dramatist, was the victim of a serious automobile accident near here yesterday, and tonight lies in his villa at Cambo Les Basques, surrounded by physicians, who thus far have been unable to predict the outcome of his injuries.

He is suffering from serious contusions of the head and body and it is feared he is hurt internally.

M. Rostand was motoring from Cambo Les Basques to St. Jean de Luz, accompanied by his chauffeur and a mechanic. His machine skidded on a curve, leaped into the air, turned over and fell to the bottom of a 15-foot ditch, plunging the poet beneath it. M. Rostand is 43 years old.

LAURIER WILL BATTLE HARD

Begins Great Campaign for Reciprocity and Indicates Are He Will Be Successful

BIG MAJORITY FOR PACT

OTTAWA, Aug. 17.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Premier of Canada, started yesterday on his speaking campaign to prove the advantages of reciprocity with the United States to those who are now opposed to it.

The Canadian premier will concentrate all his energies on the eastern provinces and Quebec will receive special attention, not only because it always has controlled the political situation in Canada, but because the anti-reciprocity leaders have won the French-Canadian clergy of that province to their views on the reciprocity question.

The French Canadian people as a whole are strongly in favor of reciprocity, and the Conservatives and Nationalists, headed by Bourassa and Monk, are fully aware of that fact. It is for that reason that they have devoted so much attention to the ecclesiastical leaders. They are arguing hard to minimize the benefits of reciprocity and to change the issue to last year's bill for the creation of the Canadian navy.

It is not believed that they will be successful in this and, although some of the Nationalist leaders will find their way to the house, they are very unlikely that they will be able to divert the reciprocity issue.

Expect Greater Majority.

The western provinces seem certain to increase the Liberal majority. This is admitted by many of the Conservatives themselves. There may be some change in Ontario at the coming election, but not greatly to the benefit of the Conservatives. The maritime provinces also are expected to increase the Liberal majority, and it is even stated that the seat of the leader of the opposition is somewhat unsafe. Those best informed as to the situation believe that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be returned to power with a majority behind him of between forty and fifty.

The question of the hour is: Shall the Nationalists, led by Bourassa and Monk and backed by a large majority of the French-Canadian clergy, turn the tide of events? Will Sir Wilfrid Laurier repeat his trick of 1896 against practically the same odds?

The Liberal leaders from Quebec do not seem to be wavering much. They assert that all will be well when the old chief goes through the provinces and that his personality and magnetism will sweep away all substantial opposition and bring forth the reciprocity pact as the first and most important issue.

Beat Laurier at All Costs.

The aim of the Nationalists is to beat Laurier at all costs. They have therefore come to the conclusion that reciprocity with the United States, which is looked upon very favorably in Quebec must be minimized, if not entirely obliterated. Bourassa, through his promises, his ever flattering ways and his oratorical genius, has won over the French Canadian clergy, a feat which his celebrated grandfather, Papineau, could not do. This, however, was an easy task, as everything which appeals to "Liberalism" is looked suspiciously upon by the Quebec clergy, so much so that in 1878 it took a special envoy from Rome, Mgr. Genov, to force the clergy to desert from their erroneous views.

Again in 1896, when Laurier came to power, the present papal secretary of state, Cardinal Merry del Val, was dispatched in all haste to force the clergy not to interfere with the present administration. The present apostolic delegate will no doubt again be called upon to induce his flock to lay down their arms.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, whose keen sense of perception and knowledge of Quebec is well known, has seized upon the situation and will devote a good deal of his time to Quebec.

OUSTED CHAIRMAN IS STILL ON WAR PATH

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 17.—Democracy in New Jersey is badly split as a result of the state committee's action in Asbury Park last Thursday when James R. Nugent was ousted as chairman, and should the deposed official take the matter to court, it is thought likely legal light will ensue that will keep the question of a chairman open for a long time.

It is said Mr. Nugent does not intend to give up the office, while, on the other hand, the committee has a month to select his successor. Should he insist on serving it is not believed he could get a quorum together to hold a meeting.

AVIATOR USES NEW BRAND WHILE AFLOAT

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Frank Goodale, who flies his own airplane nightly over Palisades Park, may go down into history as the discoverer of the air serpent. He came down last night with his hair on end and scared speechless.

When he recovered he said that at a height of 2,000 feet he was attacked by a long green thing that had two great wings and seemed to come out of a cloud. He was saved by the searchlight that was trained on him, for the creature seemed to fear the light and retreated at once to his lair, wherever that was.

RECTOR BITTER AGAINST SMITH

Episcopal Clergyman Who Criticized Astor Says His Bishop Is of the Smart Set Himself

TELLS OF PERSECUTION

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 17.—Rev. Dr. George Chalmers Richmond of St. John's Protestant Episcopal church of Philadelphia, answering the repudiation of his Astor wedding sermon by the head of the Episcopal church of his own diocese, Bishop Mackey-Smith, makes a characteristically hot reply upon his superior.

He says the bishop himself is a member of the smart set, luxuriates in a large income, has some of his closest friendships among the idle rich, maintains palatial residences in town and country, and is or has been pronouncedly fond of the material pleasures of life.

"It is only to be expected, then, that he would be against when I turned the list on the aristocracy, when I let out straight from the shoulder and roughly jostled the banquet board," declared Rev. Dr. Richmond yesterday.

Hounded By His Superior.

"Moreover," he continued, "from the minute I showed mental independence and progressiveness in the conduct of my parish my name has been written down largest in Bishop Mackey-Smith's black book. It is only the fair truth I tell you, when I say that he has done his best to hound me out of his diocese, when I say that I continue to hold my rectory and the confidence and endorsement of my vestry in spite of a campaign that he has waged against me for more than a year and a half."

"He has sent to me personally a series of letters astounding in their insulting character—remarkable protests from a bishop's pen in their extravagance of vilification. He has falsely declared of me that I am a lunatic and the nephew of a lunatic."

"In all there are twelve or thirteen of these letters."

"I have seriously contemplated bringing an action for $50,000 for slander against the bishop. In any event I shall seek satisfaction and vindication through the church itself, through an ecclesiastical court, a court of bishops."

"What has so far held me back in pity for Bishop Mackey-Smith. He is a physically broken man, I wish I could believe that his illness was the sole cause of his extraordinary and rank bitterness against me. It would make conditions easier to bear."

Following are extracts from the letters Dr. Richmond says he has received from Bishop Mackey-Smith:

"I find another childish, kindergarten card from you, in which, like a naughty little boy who has just been punished, you make a face at me, not daring to do more."

"I make allowances for you in this matter because I remember that you are a nephew of the person who, when I was a boy, was known as 'Crabby Richmond' because he made himself a scandal in every community he ever entered."

"The feeling that you are not quite right in the upper story is now generally believed by the clergy of Philadelphia."

"The only reason I let you off to-morrow is to avoid the horrible scandal which would ensue as soon as the church learned your career."

"I hate to see Yale men come to what you are."

"Because of your horrible vanity as well as your rage for self-advancement and the fact that you seem to me every time and are every in subordinate on general principles, you have flung your whole life away and are condemned to third-rate uselessness."

"Your vestry may stand by you for the present, but your next outbreak of Finnish temper may alienate every one of them."

"Believe me, you might become a decent, respectable, useful fellow."

UNIVERSITY READY WITH IMPROVEMENTS

Work Done on All Buildings and Sleeping Porches Are Added

TUCSON, Aug. 17.—Improvements are still the order of the day at the University of Arizona. All kinds have been made during the summer and a force of men have been working continuously repairing buildings and building additions to those already there in order to handle the students who will register next month. A record registration is expected according to all reports.

The latest addition to be made is a large sleeping porch on the north and east side of North Hall, the college men's dormitory. This will fill a long felt want and from the plans which have been drawn, it is probable that the college men's hopes will be fulfilled. Toilets and shower baths will be put on the new porch on the second floor, thereby increasing the convenience of the dormitory. The porch will be a double decker so that the men on both floors will be able to sleep in comfort and security at all times. A number of them sleep outside in the open because it is cooler and better suits them. When it rains, the beds become wet, thereby causing a great deal of work and annoyance. With the new sleeping porch this will all be obviated and the beds will be safe from the water.

WOMEN MAY AVOID OPERATIONS

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will prove how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement.

Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for seven months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it."

Mrs. Orville Rock, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women. Why don't you try it?

which were injured in the fire this year about a month before the dismissal of college are being repaired and will cost in the neighborhood of $1000. Two of the largest rooms in the building were damaged seriously by the flames and water. They will be completely wrecked and be ready for use when college opens next month. The danger from such another disaster has been precluded to a great extent by building two large fire proof vaults one of which will contain inflammable and dangerous acids and chemicals while the other will contain valuable papers and works of the experiment station which is located in this building.

TEXAS YOUTH KILLS A WOMAN IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—According to witnesses, a charge of carrying a concealed weapon is the severest that can be lodged against James Cullen Henderson, the lad from San Antonio, Tex., whose revolver shot a woman dead when he dropped it last night on Park Row. Henderson is in jail today awaiting arraignment and showed the most anxiety regarding how the occurrence would be viewed at home. To his mother, who resides at 314 Woodlawn avenue, San Antonio, he sent the following telegram:

"Dear Mother: I have, please remember, unintentionally shot a news woman. Don't get excited."

Henderson, who is 16 years old, said he had been saving his money for months to enable him to spend his vacation in New York. "I went over to the women," he said, "to buy a paper. I was fishing in the side pocket of my coat for a cent and in drawing my hand out I pulled the revolver. I tried to catch it, but it fell to the sidewalk and went off."

Mrs. Rose Malchoede, who sold papers at the Brooklyn bridge entrance, was the victim of the accident.

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are of the most intimate nature, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help.

That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if these cases treated were numbered by tens of thousands. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, it is a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them.
